Agenda Item Introduction

Council Meeting Date: 1-04-22

Name: David Larson

Agenda Item: Recognition of Mayor Jo Sjoblom and Councilmember Wayne Winsor

Background: Mayor Jo Sjoblom has served South Weber City as an elected official for 6 years – 2 as a Councilmember and 4 as Mayor. She has represented the City as a member of the Davis County Council of Governments, Central Weber Sewer Improvement District Board, Wasatch Integrated Administrative Control Board, Community Development Block Grant Committee, Utah League of Cities and Towns Legislative Policy Committee, and the Chair of the Wasatch Front Regional Council Active Transportation Committee.

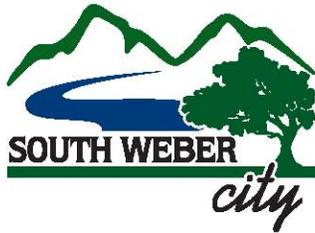

Mayor Sjoblom has contributed many long-lasting improvements to City planning and operations through giving countless hours in various committee meetings, staff meetings and events, and public meetings. She has worked hard to chair the City Council, administer City ordinances, and elevate the City's position and influence regionally. We also recognize Jo's family, and especially her husband Darin, for the support he's given during Jo's dedicated public service.

Councilmember Wayne Winsor has served South Weber City for 7 years – 3 as a Planning Commissioner and 4 as a Councilmember. Wayne has served on the City's Admin/Finance, Municipal Utilities, and Public Safety Committees. He has represented the City on the Utah League of Cities and Towns Legislative Policy Committee and served as the City's voice on the Mosquito Abatement District-Davis Board.

Among many important contributions, Wayne has been instrumental in improving the City's financial planning, administrative policies and procedures, and high-speed broadband options for the City. We also recognize Wayne's family, and especially his wife Lisa, for the support she's given during Wayne's dedicated public service.

Summary: Honor Mayor Jo Sjoblom and Councilmember Wayne Winsor for their many years of dedicated service!
