Significant Events

Significant Events

0340 hrs / Traffic Stop -Restricted Persons

Deputy Gall conducted a traffic stop on a white Buick Regal (Ohio Plate). The occupants contacted were identified and both were found with multiple NCIC warrants out of Ohio. Ohio agencies would not extradite. The female occupant was found to be an AP&P fugitive out of Ohio and listed as a registered sex offender out of compliance for rape. Ohio would not extradite. A K-9 sniff resulted in a search of the vehicle, which produced a firearm and several large knives associated with illegal narcotics found in the vehicle. Both occupants were taken into custody, to be interviewed by Detectives for the firearms offense and other related offenses. The male occupant had a seizure while in custody at the Sheriff's Office and was transported to the hospital via ambulance. The Buick was impounded. At the time of entry, suspects were still being interviewed by detectives.

Significant Events

0005 hrs / V-Burg

A citizen reported that he had confronted a female suspect who was in the process of burglarizing his vehicle in the driveway. He chased the female suspect north toward the nearby Air BnB residence, where she entered a passenger vehicle and sped off. He was not able to provide a vehicle description. The report to DCSO was made 20 mins after the incident had occurred. No suspects or other nearby involvements identified.

Significant Events

1416 hrs / Suspicious-Warrant-Fleeing

Sgt Dabb and Deputy Reid initially responded to the report of a suspicious person in a dark grey Nissan passenger vehicle. While en route, recent local calls in the area identified a Nissan maxima whose occupant was contacted by Deputy Saurey and Deputy Bascillico previously, but did not give correct identifying information. Upon arrival in the area the male was seen leaving and contact was made with a separate female identified as the suspects girlfriend. She identified the male and after finding his real name, he was found to have a warrant for his arrest. After searching the area Deputy Sholly found him running through yards and took him into custody. He admitted he knew he had a warrant and ran when we arrived. He was booked on his warrant and fleeing.

Significant Events

1330 hrs/ Follow up-Weapons offense

Neighbors in the area called to report the gold passenger vehicle from a previous case was at the residence again and the male in the vehicle was the same male suspected of discharging the firearm. Phone contact was made with the home owner and his girlfriend. He reported he wasn't home and did not know the male but looked at his security cameras and confirmed an african american male had entered his residence. The girlfriend stated there was a male in the home but refused to identify him. A male matching the description was observed leaving the residence and entering the suspect vehicle. A high risk traffic stop was conducted and he was detained. The male was identified and he reported he had discharged a firearm in the backyard of the residence. The firearm was recovered and a charge for unlawful discharge of a firearm was submitted.

Significant Events

0900 hrs/ Missing Vehicle

Winterton Tow had a vehicle that was taken from the lot that was state tax impounded by Layton. The owner was at the yard the evening of May 12, trying to retrieve the vehicle without a release from DMV. The owner got upset and eventually left. The vehicle was taken that same evening. The vehicle has not been located, and the owner was likely the one who took the vehicle or is in possession of it, and therefore was not listed NCIC as stolen. Deputy Gall located the vehicle at 1102 E 780 N in Layton. Winterton Towing retrieved the vehicle, and the owner was booked on charges.

Significant Events

0016 hours / Sexual Assault

Mckay Dee ER called in to advise that a 22 year old female had come into the ER stating that she had just been sexually assaulted. Assistance was requested from the on call detective who responded to handle the case.

Significant Events

2346 hrs / Trespassing - Reckless Burning

Deputy May and Deputy Ray responded to the report of a female lighting the complainant's BBQ and grass on fire with a tiki torch. The female is trespassed from this property and continues to return. Prior to Deputies arriving, she hid in the nearby tall grass and was found a short time later by Deputy May. She was taken into custody and booked into the Davis County Jail on trespassing and reckless burning charges.

Significant Events

0142 hours / Suspicious

A complainant called in to report that a log was on fire in her yard. Her daughter had lit the yard on fire with a tiki torch the night prior and was arrested, but had since been released from jail. The complainant was unsure if the log had rekindled from the fire yesterday, or if her daughter had come back and started a new fire. No one saw her on the property and the area was searched with K9 Loki, but no persons were located. Extra patrol was provided throughout the night with nothing suspicious found.

Significant Events

0051 hours / Attempted Burglary

A complainant called in to report that an hour prior, he caught two males in his garage holding his tools in their hands. He confronted the males, punched them and they ran off without taking any of his property. They were described as being in their late teens/early twenties wearing dark colored hoodies. One with a short beard and the other with longer hair. He did not recognize either suspect and there is no surveillance footage. He did not wish to cooperate with further investigation into the incident. No one has called in to report being assaulted

Significant Events

1102 hours / Suicide

An 18 year old failed to show up at work Thursday morning. Morgan Police were asked to do a welfare check but never made contact with him. Family and friends had been looking for him. They located his vehicle in the South Weber park and ride. The victim was discovered inside deceased from a suspected suicide. Detectives and crime lab responded.

Significant Events

1305 hrs / Warrant Service

Deputy Sholly located a male and female at the Maverick in South Weber that had warrants and were arrested. The male's warrant was a F2 out of Tooele. Due to Tooele not doing transports from DCSO Jail, attempts were made with Tooele SO to see if they wanted to meet to take him and they did not respond with an answer in sufficient time. The female was transported to the jail.

Significant Events

1204 hr / Family disturbance

Two females who are related live next to each other and began arguing about water being sprayed on a trampoline during irrigation of a lawn. Deputies were able to calm the parties down and separate them.
