Purpose of an LBA:

The purpose of South Weber City's Local Building Authority (LBA) is to serve as a legal and financial tool to facilitate the financing, acquisition, construction, and improvement of the Public Works Facility for the city. The construction project of the Public Works Building is complete

Functions of an LBA:

- Issuing Bonds: The LBA funds major projects by issuing lease revenue bonds—no voter approval needed.
- Leasing Facilities: It can own buildings and lease them back to the city, allowing costs to be paid overtime.
- Project Management: Acts as a city-controlled body to streamline oversight, contracts, and funding.
